

The President has named Thursday, November 27th for a day of general thanksgiving.

The Owensboro Republicans held a jollification meeting last Saturday night over the result of the recent State elections.

The News claims a larger circulation than the Herald. The Herald goes to 240 post-offices—the News to 110. How does that look.

We call the attention of farmers to the lecture of Dr. Sharp in this week's Agricultural Department, upon the novel subject of "How to get poor." It contains some valuable hints.

The Hartford Herald never heard of the cuckoo-bur. We are sorry. But where did you ever hear of cuckoo-bur?—Brockbridge News. Cuckoo-bur—a weed of the genus Xanthium.—Gray.

We have another communication from Mr. P. E. Hocker which we had intended to publish this week, but will have to defer till next issue on account of space all being filled with local news of more interest to our readers.

We would like to know who informed the Editor of the News that the Senior Editor of this paper retires from the Editorship? Was he so informed at all? Is not the wish father to the thought?

A few days ago, the cattle-pens of Perrin & Galt, Cincinnati, were burned, and 1200 fat cattle were in the pens at the time. All the cattle were consumed. A total loss of $40,000 was sustained. But the whole was insured.

Is the bright lexicon of the Hartford Herald we find the word "preventative." Go head, young man.—Echo.

Preventative, noun: that which prevents.—Horreder. If the Echo would use a little preventive, he would not run against such authority as the Herald and the big dictionaries.

The Kentucky Democrat, T. D. Marcum's new paper, came to time this week. It is a seven-column, patent inside. The publisher promises to change this feature in a few weeks—when he acquires a more ready use of the scissors. He found it took more penning to fill the columns of a newspaper than he had calculated, hence the resort to the auxiliaries. He launches his ship with six hundred passengers looked. Success to you, brother.

The Republicans swept the platter in all the North, in the recent elections, carrying all the States by increased majorities. In New York, the Legislature is two-thirds Republican, and Cornell, Rep., is elected by about 40,000 pluralities. The balance of the State ticket is so close that it cannot be decided except by official count. The Southern States all went Democratic. Thus it seems we are to have an almost Solid North and equally Solid South.

Dr. C. H. Todd, for several years president of the Daviess County Fair Company, was publicly caned in the court house on last Saturday week by Col. John H. McHenry, Secretary of the company, who was actuated by his own design, as well as to carry out the wish of the company, who thought that Dr. Todd deserved a public caning. The Doctor was well pleased with the proceedings, and has the cane, a very fine gold-headed one.

Circuit Court opened on Monday, and was fully organized for business. The town was full of men from all parts of the county. Jockey square was crowded all day long, and considerable horse trading and a vast amount of sparring was done. It was a good day for saloons, judging from the number of men in the wind. Our merchants were full of business. And among other chores many called at our office and settled up. This is what we want—a subscription boom.

Among the questions to come before the Legislature this winter, there is, perhaps, none of more importance to the State than the State prison. Governor Blackburn has been settling the question of an overcrowded prison in a humane manner. But the relief in that direction is only temporary. Some provision must be made for greater facilities for punishing in a civilized way. The present site of the State prison is not at all suited for further extension of the old buildings. If, therefore, a new house is to be built, we are decidedly in favor of locating it in Western Kentucky. In the event that this should be done, we suggest the propriety of locating it at Rockport, in this county. That point is a very healthy location, and has the advantage of railroad and river communication. It is in direct communication with all parts of Western Kentucky, and is centrally located. Our county is rich in all natural resources to accommodate such an institution. Our best coal beds are close to Rockport, and also the district is well timbered, so that all the resources and facilities for the branches of manufacture usually carried on in prisons are convenient. Building material is abundant and cheap. The State can erect and operate a prison at Rockport with little expense as at any point in the State. We promise if the Legislature will give us a prison here to be loyal to the rule and give a liberal patronage to home institutions. We suggest the propriety of our citizens instructing our Representatives to ask for the Western State prison to be located at Rockport, Ohio county.

The Coal Furnace. Kentucky coal is now selling at $6 per load of 20 bushels, in Louisville. The demand is 25,000 bushels per day, while the railroad only delivers 18,000 bushels daily.

Hit Him Again.

The Echo says "most of the teachers have been paid." Go foot, young man, go foot.

Death in a Well.

On Nov. 8th, Patton Johnson was suffocated while cleaning out a well at Thos. Williams', four miles from Elizabethtown. Those assisting him saw him when overcome with the damp, and on drawing him up he toppled out and fractured his skull, from which he died after laying in the well seven hours.

The Tobacco Market.

While everything else seems to have been rapidly advancing, tobacco has been declining in prices. We do not exactly understand the cause of this difference.

The statement has been made that the total yield for this year is larger than it has been for years. We are in doubt upon that point. But, however that may be, it is certain that our farmers are expecting higher prices for their present crop than they are likely to receive. It will be a difficult year for buyers, on account of the general impression that tobacco will be in demand. There seems to be no doubt that there is a ring among shippers and large buyers to endeavor to control the markets at home. We think this will be a good year to hold the crop for spring prices.

Plowed up $1,300.

A gentleman from the neighborhood, whose authority is said to be reliable, yesterday told us to friends upon the streets, that a day or two previous a negro workman upon the farm of Mr. Price, who owns the old Lehigh place on the Lovelaceville road, about eleven miles from town, while turning up an old field with a horse plow, turned up a jar, and on investigation found it contained a large amount of gold coin. It is said the negro immediately dropped his work and made for the house, not should resolved that as he could work with ease on his find he would work no more. What was done at the house is not known; but the gentleman who brought the news said the man took the money to Massie and there displayed it. It was counted and the amount found to be $1,300. The money was all gold and the pieces of all denominations. It had the appearance of having been in the ground a long time, and the date of some of the pieces showed it to be very old.—Puduch News.

Since the above find, horses and plows are in demand. The whole of the Purchase will be plowed this winter, we presume.

County Judges—What They Get for Dispensing Justice.

Judge Newton has received letters from various Judges in Southern Kentucky and among other items of interest brought out, for the information of our readers we give the following list, showing salaries of Judges, Attorneys and the number of voters.

Daviess—Judge $1,000, Prosecuting Attorney $500, voters 6,100.
Christian county—Judge $800, Attorney 600, voters 6,583.
Warren—Judge $800 Attorney $600 voters 6,059.
Logan—Judge $600 Attorney $600 voters 3,500.
Barren—Judge $500 Attorney $500 voters 5,000.
Hopkins—Judge $400 Attorney $350, McLean—Judge $500 Attorney $500 voters 1,900.
Grayson—Judge $200 Attorney $200 voters 2,859.
Butler—about $200 voters 2,400.
Ohio—Judge $300 Attorney $400 voters 4,100.
Breckinridge—Judge $375 Attorney 262 voters 3,500.

In the above list it appears that Logan county has fewer voters than Ohio and pays $600. Barren, voters less, salary more. Daviess pays over three times as much salary as Ohio and has one-third more votes. McLean, voters less than one-half as many and pays $500 to the Judge and Attorney. But we have the satisfaction of beating Butler county, and are also on a par with Grayson.

These figures speak for themselves. We are in favor of low salaries. But there is such a thing as making them too low.

A CONFIDING KENTUCKIAN.

How He Purchased a Watch and Chain for a Dollar.

There is a man living in McLean county, Ky., who ought to know better than to believe every advertisement he reads regarding lotteries, etc. A. T. Bryant read in a newspaper the advertisement of a Chicago firm who proposed to sell their magnificent solar-graph watch, a wonderful instrument that would keep correct time in any and all parts of the world, self-adjusting, self-regulating, and needing no attention at all; a machine of perpetual motion, and the most wonderful machine ever invented, and the whole thing, with a heavy gold-plated chain, and all to be sent to any part of the United States for the small sum of $1—when he saw this he gobbled in the bait and sent the dollar, and of course received the watch with a tin box with a sun-dial and a small compass inside, the whole thing appended to one end of a small brass chain, heavy about ten cents. Bryant was swindled, but he had not learned not to squeal, and yesterday the solar-graph watch and the following letter were received by Mayor Harrison:

BRANNEY, McLEAN CO., KY., Oct. 8, 79.

"To the City Authorities:

"GENTLEMEN—I herewith inclose a sun-dial that has been sent to me in place of a watch. The out and advertisement I also inclose. It is a swindle and I think proper to put a stop to all such, if there is any law for it. Please confer a favor by attending to this for me, and have the watch sent as proposed, or the money, and oblige.

A. T. BRYANT."

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

How could he expect such a valuable watch as described? He evidently wants something for nothing himself and got beat at his own game. Bryant, your dollar is gone. We have heard it said that "a fool and his money soon part."

He was the first pitcher on record. He pitched the Ark within and without. The game was finally called on account of the pain. How do you Noah it was?

PERSONAL.

Mrs. L. Guenther is improving. Master James Phillips is very sick. Mrs. E. R. Murrell is visiting relatives in Owensboro.

MILLWOOD, Nov. 8, 1879.

Editor Herald:

This place has become the "boss" shipping point on the P. & E. R. R. We shipped last month seventy-eight cars of staves—still shipping three and four cars per day—have 200,000 waiting shipment. How is that for business. Mr. DeHaven, of Breckinridge county, will soon erect a new tobacco warehouse at this place, which has long been needed.

H. K. Wells, Jas. Stevens and party, of Cloverport, started yesterday to Dickey Mills, on Nolin river, on a big deer hunt—much success.

H. C. Crawford returned from the city last week, with a mammoth stock of dry goods and a lot of furniture—some one is going to marry soon—it's Clay.

Mrs. H. K. Wells, returned from Louisville, Sunday where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. Lydia Bunch, of Goff's, is visiting parents and friends at this place.

Miss Mollie McGill and Mrs. Jane Lesley, of Elizabethtown, returned home Wednesday. They have been visiting Mrs. H. K. Wells.

SULPHUR SPRINGS, KY.

Editor Herald:

Not long since, I visited friends relatives and the services of my boyhood, old Warren, and thought a few items would be of interest to your readers. I found my father, Samuel M. Kerby, alive, and well, and healthy and sturdy, and walks about actively, although 93 years old last April. He was born in South Carolina, but came to Warren county, when a small boy.

He served our General Harrison in the war of 1812, and his memory of the scenes and incidents of that day and time is very vivid and correct.

My father, my father's sister, is still living and is now 80 years old. Her husband, Leonard Kerby, is a cousin of my father, is now 85 years old and is active and erect. He was a soldier in the war of 1812 under Harrison, and also fought under old Hickory Jackson at the celebrated battle of New Orleans.

Jefferson Kerby, a brother of my father, is 72 years old and his wife is also 72, both living and looking well.

Miss Lizzie Johnson, a daughter of James Johnson, is nine years old and weighs 127 pounds. She is, nevertheless, an intelligent, beautiful girl. These people are all citizens of Warren county.

The crops are quite short in Warren, on account of drought. They had no grain at all for eight weeks, which has shortened the crops of all kinds about one-third; with tobacco almost an entire failure.

With wishes for the success of the Herald, I remain yours, J. Q. K.

The Human Pulse.

The human pulse has in all ages been consulted as an index of health or disease. It is a kind of dial within us that gives us both the measure of time and of health. The pulse of a person in health beats about seventy strokes in a minute, and the ordinary term of life is about seventy years. In this seventy years, the pulse of a temperate person beats two billion, five hundred and seventy-four million, four hundred and forty thousand times. If no actual disorganization should happen, a driven person might live until his pulse beats this number of times; but by the constant stimulus of ardent spirits, or by pulse-quickening food, the heart becomes greatly accelerated, and the two billion, five hundred and forty thousand pulsations, are performed in a little more than half the ordinary term of human life, and life ends out in forty or forty-five years instead of seventy. This application of numbers is given to show that the acceleration of those forces diminishes the term of human life.

Josh Billings on Marriage.

Sam people marry because they think women will be scarce. They don't live to wonder how the stock holds out. Sam marry to get rid of themselves, and discover that the game was one that two could play at, and neither win.

Sam marry for love without a cent in their pocket, nor a friend in the world, nor a drop of pedigree. This looks desperate, but it is the strength of the game. Sam marry for love, and then set down and think it carefully over.

Sam think it carefully over first, and then set down and marry.

Another Kentucky War.

War has been declared in the usually peaceful region known as No Creek. There have been three engagements up to the present time. But no lives lost. G. W. Bennett recently appointed O. B. Chapman his agent to sell a certain lot of stave timber, and Mr. Chapman sold the timber to the agent of Mr. Ballantine, of Calhoun, who erected a shanty and began operations. But Bennett, for what reason no one can tell, has determined to prevent the workmen from proceeding. He has charged the fort three times with a shot-gun. What the end will be is yet to be seen.

Notice.

We have in our possession a copy of "A treatise on the Horse and his Diseases" by Dr. B. J. Kendall, of Enosburg Falls, Vermont. Of course we do not insinuate that the readers of this paper ever get drunk but people sometimes do, you know, and then the next day—early in the morning—somebody feels like he had "a big head and a full stomach," and he don't care to say anything about it either. Oh how that head does ache, and how dry! Some are sick—oh, so sick, and vomit, too, (not cologne either) and become so hot about the stomach. More water and better water, they cry. There is an infallible remedy for all such cases. It cools the stomach, quenches the thirst, relieves the headache, acts freely upon the bowels, opens the pores of the skin, and at the same time a most delightful and sparkling beverage, just as pleasant as soda water. Try it one time, ye who are sufferers. The article is known as Bailey's Saline Aperient, and no man or woman should fail to keep it at all times.

J. M. Rogers, who has lived at Buford for some time past, left last week for his home in Eastern Kentucky.

500 head and sheep skins wanted, for which I will pay the highest price. C. F. SCHAEFER.

B. A. Southard brought us a fine mess of new potatoes. He planted 5 bushels and gathered 93 bushels—a fine increase. One is a curiosity for shape.

Louis Breckle informs those wishing boots and shoes that he is still in that line of business. Shop next door to Wright's Hotel.

Boots! boots! shoes! boots! One of the largest stocks of boots and shoes ever brought to this place is now opening at L. ROSENBERG & BRO'S.

Mr. E. A. Edgerton respectfully informs the citizens of Hartford and vicinity, that he intends to remain at this place and carry on the painting business in all its branches, house, sign and carriage work, graining, paper hanging, etc., done in the latest style. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction. All favors in his line will be thankfully received, and promptly attended to. 4241.

Mr. E. A. Edgerton.

Oysters for six, or as many more as may call at Foster & Hill's.

Fine wines and whiskies for medicinal purposes, at THOMAS & KIMBLEY'S.

Uncle James Maddox brought us a specimen of his Irish potatoes yesterday, which are as nice as we ever saw.

Foster & Hill did not burn out last week. But are still selling the best and cheapest groceries and meats.

WANTED—PORK—R. P. Rowe & Bro. want to buy 100,000 pounds of pork to be delivered at Hartford, for which they will pay a fair price. 45-47

The singing school in charge of Prof. Edgerton, is progressing finely. The class sing well considering the number of lessons received.

See that big injun in the door of the Lyon House ringing a bell. That is Foster calling the hungry to a first-class meal at his European Restaurant.

Miss Nora Taylor is assistant teacher in Mr. Hocker's school at Beaver Dam. She is a young lady deserving credit.

WANTED—500 men wanted during Circuit Court to subscribe for the Hartford Herald. Also 1,000 old subscribers to pay up, and be happy.

E. W. Wood, of Owensboro, has rented the tobacco factory at Beaver Dam, of Mr. Wm. Austin. He will doubtless do a good business.

Will Cooper, of Cromwell, called on Monday and paid for two subscriptions to the Herald. Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing—the same song.

Uncle Buck Wade has gathered 80 bushels of corn on an acre and a-half of ground. He calculates his entire crop to yield 50 bushels per acre.

Those indebted to Rogers & King will come forward and settle at once. We need money and must insist upon an early settlement. 413t.

October 27th 1879.

Lost—On Thursday, in Hartford, a small leather purse containing some money and a few notes. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same with Judge W. F. Gregory.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Thomas Southard, in Ohio county, Ky., Nov. 7, by Rev. J. T. Caselberg, Mr. J. W. Shoulders to Miss M. F. Southard.

Mrs. Sallie A. Stevens, of No Creek, received a very serious wound last week. She was milking a cow, and the cow made a pass at a dog, stepping upon Mrs. Stevens' foot, inflicting a severe and painful wound.

An infant child of I. F. Manker, which had been left at L. A. W. Carson's to be cared for, died on Tuesday night of last week. It was about five months old. Its mother died when it was but a few weeks old.

A certain baby looked very sweet the other night, but it would have looked much sweeter if it had had on one of those weeping-willow hoods. You can get them at Anderson's Bazar.

Beaver Dam is rapidly improving. They have a nice new school-house just completed, and several new buildings have been erected this year, and there are some three or four now under way. It's one of the liveliest towns we know of.

A spiritualistic medium is that mule of Mr. Z. Wayne Griffith's. Two young men were driving it through the streets on Sunday, when it suddenly began tossing its heels in the air—much as a jumping table. The boys got out and so did the mule.

DIED—October 28th, Alice Francis, daughter of Q. S. Southard, aged six years. She died of diphtheria and other throat troubles. She was the idol of the family. Francis was a bright little girl, and will be missed by the family. The family have the sympathy of the community and the writer. J. M.

Mr. U. M. Everly, of Point Pleasant, has found a peculiar phenomenon in his coal mine. Some two inches deep in the day at the best of the mine, there is a layer of coal about two inches thick. The thin strata is of a peculiar bright black color, and burns well. We have met with this feature in coal fields. Why some of our scientific miners explain the nature of this thin seam.

We requested a farmer in town last Monday to subscribe for the Herald, but was met with the excuse that times were hard, and that he could not afford it. That same man had money enough to buy whisky to get drunk before night, which he did. Such is life.

Miss Lucie Hieronymus is in town teaching the young people to trip the "light fantastic."—Hartford Herald.

Let a ginger-cake there isn't a scholar in the class can pronounce the name inside of two minutes.—Henderson News.

We take the bet, but suppose the editor of the News would prefer something a "leech" stronger.

A list of letters remaining in the Post Office at Hartford, and if not taken out before the 1st of December, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office: James W. Carter, John W. Chinn, Marshall Duke, J. W. Drake, Al G. Fields, T. P. Fought, Wm. H. Hunsman, J. F. Manker, R. A. Pike, F. M. Southard, L. D. Walker. R. P. Rowe, P. M.

Captain S. K. Cox opened his hospitable home on Friday night last, to the friends and acquaintances of Misses Fannie Brotherton and Birdie Pulliam. At an early hour the parlors were filled and everybody was happy. Those who enjoyed the privilege of attending, return their thanks to the Captain and his amiable wife for the happy event.

The shooting editor went squirrel hunting last week and he had not sufficient wadding. He found a temperance lecture in his pocket, which had been sent in for publication, and as a last resort he used this lecture for wadding, when, lo, he never failed once in killing what he shot at. The lecture certainly had force in it.

Thomas Brothers have a specimen of potatoes at the Herald office, which surpass anything in the potato line. They are larger and more shapes than is usual. The sandy soil of Rough creek flats is adapted for the culture of the potato. Thousands of barrels of this valuable commodity could be shipped with profit every year. Why don't somebody try the experiment?

Mr. Silas Shown, of Ohio county, and Miss Lucy Moseley, of Glennville, were married last Thursday. Miss Lucy Moseley is a niece of Uncle Charles Lawton. Mr. Shown does not always patronize home institutions. There are lots of girls here who would not doubt like to encourage home talent in the matrimonial line. The above couple were married by Rev. G. J. Bean.

B. E. Richardson is getting out the finest lot of walnut logs we have seen for a long time. They will range from 20 inches to three feet in size. He also has 100 fine poplar logs ready to run the first water, and will run 400 poplars in all this winter. His logs are all first-class poplar and walnut. We trust he may realize a handsome profit out of them.

Too much law. Our citizens will be better off when more time is spent in developing their educational, agricultural interests, and less in lawing.

Judge R. S. Moseley sold his two shares of stock in the Rendler Coal Company last week for $2,550. He sold one share to Jas. A. Thomas and the other to Messrs. Thomas, Chapman, Walker and Collins. This would indicate that the Rendler Mines are not dead, but have been sleeping. The above Company are doing a fine business this season. The cities on the Ohio river have a ground-hog case on their hands—out of coal and must have it.

The constant exit of some of the "boys" at each drop of the curtain, at Mendelssohn Hall last night, provoked this remark from a young lady, who sat just to our right: "It is infinitely disgusting to see men 'bounce' out of the house at each clink of the stage bell, and then come 'dragging their slow lengths' back while the show is in progress. I don't see why they don't imitate the example of mothers of small children, and bring their bottles with them."—Messenger.

Go to G. A. Platt's and get the good, old pure Magnolia Whisky at $1.40 a gallon, or 5 cents a drink.

WANTED—The McHenry Coal Company want five mules 12 hands high, to work in the coal mines. Also 2,000 bushels of corn for which they will pay the highest market price. Call on or address

McHENRY, KY.

McLean county has a "teachers' musical institute." They meet on Saturday before the 5th Sunday in this month, at Mt. Pleasant church, near Glennville. There are some twenty teachers connected with the convention, who meet semi-occasionally, to have a good time and practice their lungs.

The first Quarterly Meeting of the Hartford Circuit M. E. Church, South, was held at No Creek church last Saturday and Sunday, and was quite a successful meeting in every respect. The collections reported by the Stewards, were liberal, considering the closeness of money matters. The next meeting will be held here embracing the 2nd Sabbath in February, 1880.

The Hartford House has recently been repaired and fitted up in excellent style. The office and saloon have been repared and whitewashed, and looks quite stylish. The saloon is furnished well, and surpasses anything of the kind ever seen before in Hartford. Jim Tom is always at his post, and Moore than willing to serve you.

The following is the list of Jurors in the Circuit Court, now in session: Wm. Stewart, Thos. L. Hardin, John M. Bishop, Wilber F. Condit, Mason L. Jones, Samuel Keown, Jo C. Barnett, T. C. Renter, Joseph Layton, Wm. Felix, Joseph Ford, Sam Morton, J. W. Magan, C. W. Butler, Virgil Turner, Jackson Yates, J. P. Stevens, John D. Miller, George N. Smith, William Brown, Birch Felix, Weaver Austin, O. B. Chapman, Jordan H. Haynes.

The physicians report that the health of Owensboro and Daviess county is better now than was ever known before at this season of the year. Prominent men in the profession say the health of this section has been growing much better for the past five years, and unless there is a reaction some of the physicians will have to seek other territories for a livelihood. This is the most wholesome item we have chronicled for some time.—Messenger.

A number of gentlemen of Hartford have associated themselves together in a magazine club. By each member subscribing $5, they purchase a list of the best magazines published. And by a system of rotation, each member of the club has the benefit of the entire list, at the cost of $5. We suggest that other clubs might be gotten up in the town or county, and greatly increase the love and knowledge of literature among the people.

The citizens of town had a first-class scare last Wednesday night. A lamp exploded in the grocery of Foster & Hill, and such a yell as emanated from some one's hush tunnel, is seldom heard. We have been unable to learn who it was, but we are watching the death list for his name, as it is scarcely possible that he will survive that yell. An excited crowd soon gathered at the scene of the fire—some with buckets—some with nothing and others had their hands in their pockets. The explosion set a lot of fire-works on fire, which caused quite a popping. Mr. Foster smothered the burning lamp with Bill Foreman's sheet. We have not learned the damage to the sheet. The lesson of the fire has been taken by two business houses in that locality—they have insured.

Robert H. Barnett died on Monday at half past three o'clock. Robert was one of our very best young men, and his death is a very serious and unexpected loss. He left a young wife and infant daughter, with whom the large circle of friends and relatives deeply sympathize. He was the oldest son of Morris H. Barnett, and the first to be taken of a large family of children. After the death of his father, Robert, although but a boy, with the aid of his younger brothers, Sam T. and Matthew S., carried on the farm, making a good support for his mother and sisters. He had been married about two years, and was making a fine start in life. We express our deepest sympathies with the bereaved family in this sad affliction.

Among our most enterprising farming districts, the neighborhood between Hartford and Beaver Dam, is worthy of mention. Mr. Riley's new fence and improvements on barn and premises, gives his place a wide-awake appearance. Next, we pass the maple grove home of Mr. James Collins, which has an air of comfort in its very appearance. In Mr. Collins' fields we see a fine grade of stock, which proves him to be a successful grainger. We pass a spacious farm-house on the Williams farm. We notice thrift at the farm of Mr. Henry Midkiff. Further on, the elegant mansion of Mr. Samuel Sowders stands in a wreath of shrubbery. Mr. Sowders has put a most elegant fence about his premises—that of the yard being painted in fine style. His gardens are wholly protected from the chickens, and I believe he could easily risk even watermelons inside of that picket fence. Our attention is next arrested by a modern school-house upon our Kentucky school buildings. This house reflects credit upon that community. And the first thing we know the Beaver Dam neighborhood will be ahead of any part of the county. Success to you, gentlemen.

Do not Fail to Witness the Grand Spectacle.

Prof. Tice has informed us that on tomorrow (Thursday) night, there will be the greatest fall of meteors witnessed since 1833. Let us all be on the alert, and see if his predictions are verified.

To Prevent and Cure Coughs and Colds

A reliable remedy is necessary in every household. Parker's Ginger Tonic is just the medicine needed. It radically cures Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis and even Consumption if used in time, by its powerful specific action on the stomach, kidneys, skin, liver and mucous surfaces of the throat and lungs. It accomplishes the cure in a wonderfully short time, and removes all pain and soreness from the lungs. It is also a most valuable stomach remedy, effectually removing dyspepsia, headache, liver disorders, costiveness, nervousness, low spirits, wakefulness, heartburn, cramps, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, etc., and gives a cheering comfort and freedom from pain that surprises every one. Buy a 50 ct. or $1.00 bottle and try it. Sold by Z. Wayne Griffin & Brother and druggists generally. 39-40-41

Do not Believe It.

If you hear that we have quit work or that our coal is not good, do not believe it but come right along to the Tom Brown bank and we will sell you the best coal in this county at 3 1/2 cents per bushel.

Married Again.

Uncle Mordecai Day, a gallant youth of 70 years, living near White Run, this county, was married a few days ago. May many bright Days come to their home.

They have no equal; and as a result act as a preventive and cure for Bilious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the stomach depends, as a necessary condition, the health of the human race, wholly, the health of the human race.

ORGANS AND PIANOS.

NEW DEPARTURE
IN THE

BY
Messrs. D. H. BALDWIN & CO.
Realizing the fact that there are hundreds of parents who would be glad to give their children a musical education, could they afford to purchase for them

We will put the price of the Organ down to $80, and purchasers can pay $10 cash, and the remainder we will divide up into small monthly payments of $4 each, which gives the purchaser a year and six months to pay the remainder. Please think what a saving of thirteen cents per day will do for our children. The above Organs are made in first class style and of first class material. The cases are of solid black walnut. They have two full sets of recovers and seven stops, three of which run the way through, making them equal to ten-stop organs of other makes. The keys are of pure ivory. A guarantee for five years goes with each organ. Persons outside of the city who find it inconvenient to call at our warehouse can have a circular containing cuts and prices sent them.

Persons desiring Pianos can obtain them from us at prices and terms equally as good as on Organs. $1 of the purchase money on organs and $2 on pianos saved by saying you saw this offer in the Hartford Herald.
